TWO PISTOL SHOTS ARE FIRED.

Defendant Declared He Was in Friendly Conversation With Mrs. Meyer When Her Spouse Entered.

Stephen Meyer of No. 206 Finney avenue is charged in a grand jury indictment with robbing Gus Murman of $100 in the latter's parlors. The robbery took place last night.

Gus Murman of No. 206 Finney avenue is the complaining witness. Mrs. Lawrence of No. 206 Fairfax avenue is the principal witness.

According to Murman, he was accused by Meyer of paying too much attention to Mrs. Meyer. The accusation was made Tuesday night, though the Murman and Meyer families always had been friendly.

Murman says he could not understand the charge, which was without foundation, he claimed, and he arranged to meet Mrs. Meyer at the home of Mrs. Lawrence.

While they were talking, Murman charged Meyer with robbing him of $100. Meyer denied the charge, and Murman, who was armed with a pistol, fired two shots at Meyer.

The shots were fired at Meyer, who was standing at the door. Two shots were fired at Meyer, who was standing at the door.

Sergeant Gleason and Policeman Cosgrove, attracted by the shots, ran to the house and arrested Meyer. The prisoner said:

"As I entered, Murman pointed a pistol at me, but I took it away from him. I took a roll of money from his pocket and threw it at me. I picked it up, but had no time to look at it. I saw a pistol in his hand, and I ran."

The police say Meyer had $5 in his pockets when arrested, soon after the shots were fired. Meyer is a well-known man in the neighborhood.

The shots and screams of the woman who witnessed the affair created considerable excitement in the vicinity.
